

Forbes

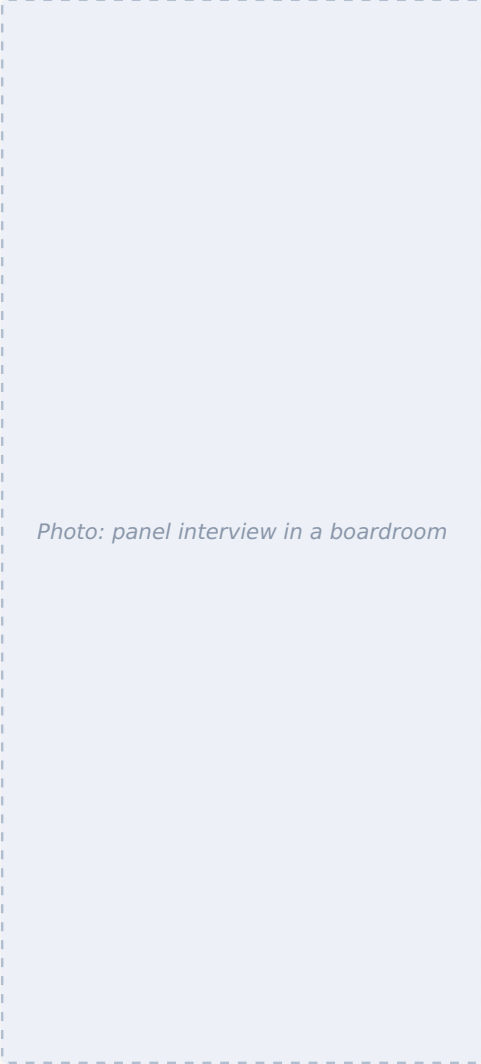

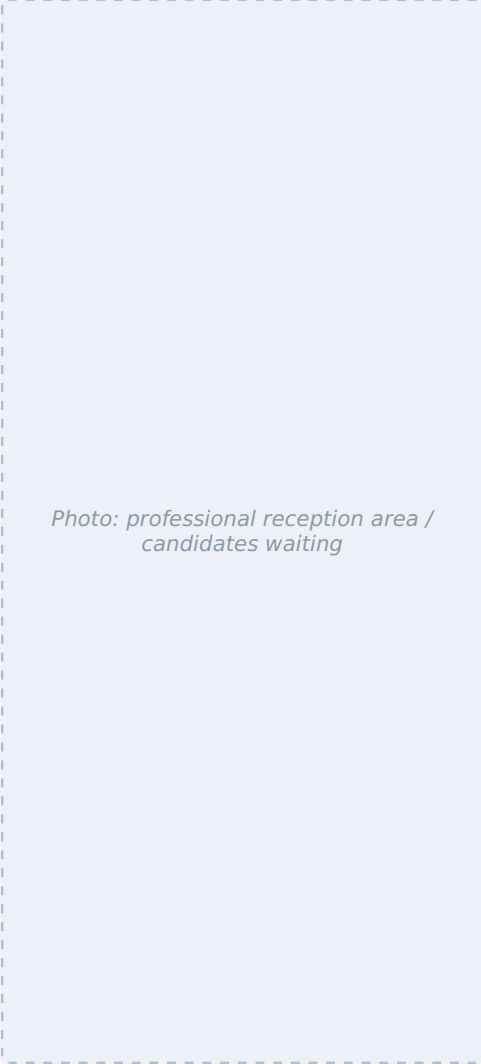

ENGLISH

JOB INTER- VIEW

ENGLISH FOR PROFESSIONALS

Level B2 · Forbes English

Illustration: confident candidate sitting opposite

Match each photo to a word. Then complete the missing letters below each photo.

cover letter

candidate

panel interview

competency

shortlist

strengths

body language

cover letter on a desk

c _ _ l _ _ r

candidate at an interview

c _ _ d _ _ e

three interviewers at a table

p _ _ el i _ _ ew

competency framework

c _ _ t _ _

person presenting confidently

str _ _ _ ths

person with open confident posture

b _ _ l _ _ age

follow-up email on screen

f _ _ _ -up e _ _ l

calendar / first day

pr _ _ _ on p _ _

1. Underline the correct word to complete each sentence.

We drew up a shortlist / cover letter of the best ten applicants.

Please attach your cover letter / competency to the application form.

Strong body language / probation period can make a great first impression.

The successful candidate / job offer will start in September.

After six months you complete your probation period / shortlist.

She sent a professional follow-up email / panel interview the next day.

Tell us about a key competency / strengths you bring to this role.

A panel interview / cover letter involves more than one interviewer.

He was delighted to accept the job offer / shortlist.

Describe a time when your strengths / probation period made a real difference.

2. Look at the pictures. Write 1-5.

Boardroom interview scene

Candidate answering confidently

1. cover letter
2. candidate
3. panel interview
4. competency
5. shortlist

...questions you are very likely to be asked a

...things you should always do to prepare w

...things you should never say to an interview

...qualities that employers most look for in a

...ways to make an excellent first impression

...documents or items you might bring to an

...good follow-up actions to take after an int

Illustration: three candidates waiting outside an interview room, looking nervous but prepared

- 1) Tell me about yourself. _____
- 2) What is your greatest weakness? _____
- 3) Where do you see yourself in five years? _____
- 4) Describe a time you dealt with a difficult colleague. _____
- 5) Why do you want to work here? _____
- 6) What would your previous manager say about you? _____
- 7) How do you prioritise when you have multiple deadlines? _____
- 8) Do you have any questions for us? _____

- a) Interpersonal and conflict-resolution skills
- b) Motivation and knowledge of the company
- c) Self-awareness and honesty
- d) Time management and organisational skills
- e) Ambition and long-term career goals
- f) Preparation and genuine curiosity
- g) Self-presentation and communication skills
- h) Awareness of how others perceive you

LET'S PLAY

Play the board game to practise your interview vocabulary and speaking skills.

Work in pairs or small groups.

Good luck — the job is yours!

▶ PLAY NOW

Board game preview: interview-themed sn...

Illustration: candidate speaking confidently to a panel of interviewers

1. Number the events (1-6) in the correct order.

- ☐ The interviewer asks about strengths and weaknesses.
- ☐ The candidate introduces themselves confidently.
- ☐ The interviewer offers the candidate a glass of water.
- ☐ They discuss the candidate's relevant experience.
- ☐ The candidate asks a thoughtful question about the role.
- ☐ The interviewer outlines the next steps in the process.

3. Discuss with a partner.

What do you always do the night before an important interview?

What is the hardest interview question you have ever been asked?

If you could interview for your dream job anywhere in the world, where would it be?

2. Tick (✓) the

- ☐ I'm a real t
- ☐ My greatest
- ☐ I applied b
- ☐ I work well
- ☐ I don't real
- ☐ Could you
- ☐ My biggest
- ☐ I'm availab

Category	Example Question	Useful Language
Strengths & Weaknesses	What is your greatest strength?	I would say... / One of my key strengths is...
Motivation	Why do you want this particular role?	I'm particularly drawn to... / I've long admired...
Competency	Describe a time you led a challenging project.	Situation... Task... Action... Result... (STAR method)
Future Goals	Where do you see yourself in five years?	I hope to... / My long-term goal is to...

First Impressions

Student A

You are the candidate. Greet the panel, introduce yourself, and answer questions about your background and motivation.

Student B

You are the lead interviewer. Welcome the candidate warmly, ask about their experience and why they applied.

Useful phrases

- Thank you for seeing me today.
- I have X years of experience in...
- I applied because I admire your...

Strengths & Weaknesses

Student A

Answer the classic weakness question with honesty and confidence. Show what you are actively doing to improve.

Student B

You are the interviewer. Ask follow-up questions and push gently for a specific, concrete example.

Useful phrases

- One of my key strengths is...
- I would say my weakness is...
- For example, last year I...

Competency Question

Student A

Use the STAR method to answer a question about a time you solved a problem under pressure. Be specific.

Student B

Listen carefully, then ask: "What was the measurable result?" Push for numbers or specific outcomes.

Useful phrases

- The situation was...
- My specific task was to...
- As a result, we managed to...

Video thumbnail: mock B2 job interview — click to play

1. Watch and answer the questions.

What position is the candidate applying for? _____

What specific strength does she demonstrate? _____

How does she handle the weakness question? _____

What question does she ask the interviewer? _____

What advice does the interviewer give at the end? _____

2. Write your answer to ONE interview question.

Use at least 60 words and include a specific example.

Your improved version:

Write your sentences here:

Word cloud shaped like a briefcase — using all ten lesson vocabulary items at varying sizes

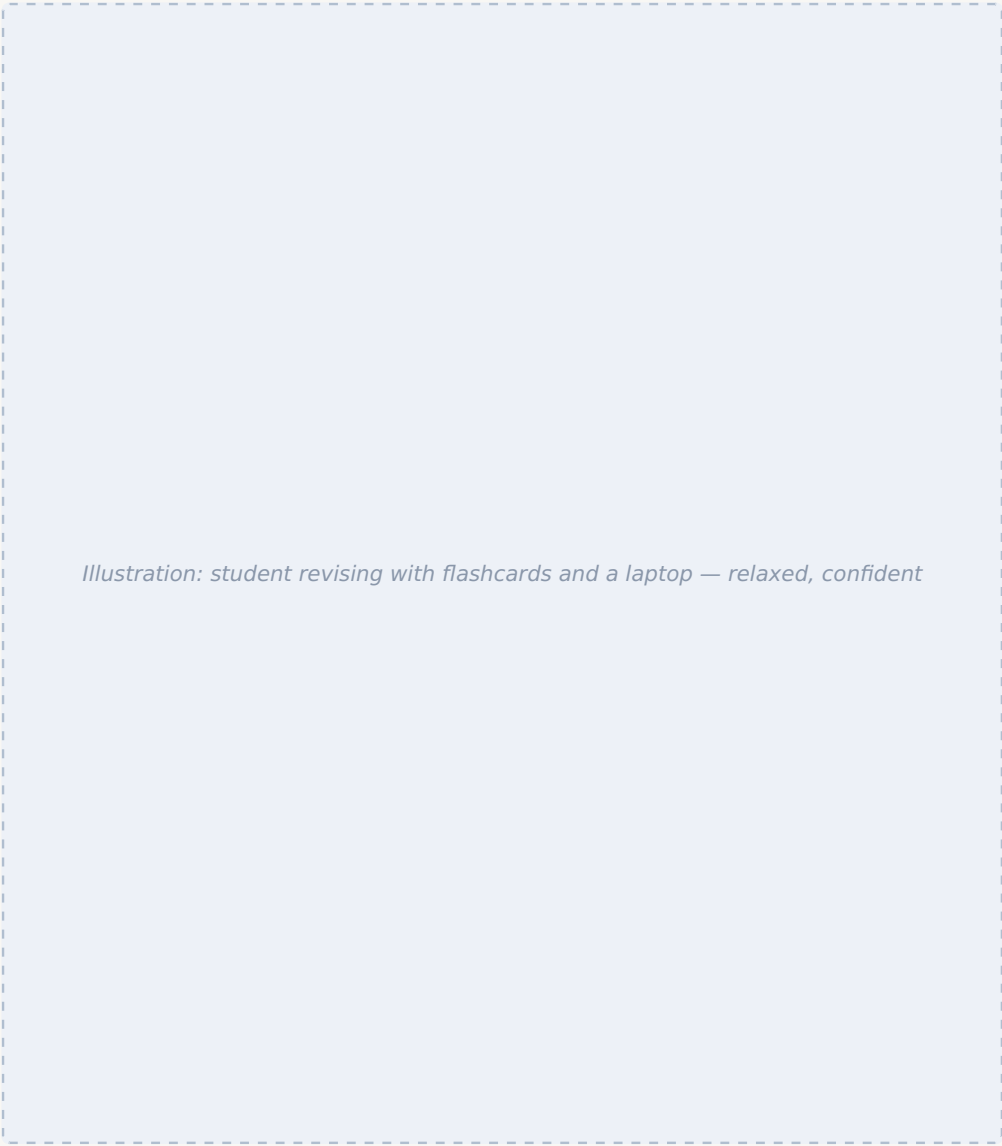

Illustration: student revising with flashcards and a laptop — relaxed, confident

Forbes
ENGLISH

Revise

Review all ten key words

Use the Quizlet set to test practise with a study partner

Open

YOU'RE HIRED.

Well done on completing the lesson.
Forbes English · Level B2

Illustration: candidate receiving a job offer letter